Total employee compensation expenditures, including benefits, since the Commission's inception through June 30, 2010 were $2,546,888.26. Staff members who are detailees have their compensation paid by the institution detailing them to the Commission. Pursuant to statute, no employee of the Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission may be paid more than the equivalent of that payable for a position at level V of the Executive Schedule under Section 5316 of Title 5, U.S. Code (approximately $143,500 annually). Compensation figures and the staff list will be updated periodically, including after the third quarter of 2010.
